

Charleswood Police

Charleswood had its own police officer from 1913-1947. In 1948 the RCMP took over municipal policing in Charleswood until September 30, 1972. No RCMP members transferred their service to the Winnipeg Police.

Officers Assigned are Unknown.

The Charleswood detachment of the RCMP ended 24 years of service to the area Sunday when the policing duties for Charleswood were officially turned over to Winnipeg Inner City Police. A change of command ceremony was held Saturday afternoon at 550 Dale Boulevard. Here Patrol Sergeant A. W. Gowler (right), assisted by Constable A. S. Broily, raises the Canadian flag over the newest precinct for Winnipeg police. The duties officially changed hands at 12:01 a.m. Sunday.
